LAST MEETING OF THE CAMPAIGN

Republicans Should Be Sure to Go to the Wigwam Tonight and Hear

COLONEL JOHN O. WINSHIP

He Is an Eloquent Orator and Will Discuss Issues of the Campaign.

IN A CONVINCING MANNER

This evening at the wigwam the last Republican demonstration of the campaign will be held and it is expected the wigwam will not hold the crowd.

The speaker of the evening is Col. J. O. Winship, of Cleveland, and he needs but little introduction to an East Liverpool audience, having delivered an address here a few years ago.

He is an orator of rare ability and possesses a personal magnetism that at once wins the hearts of his hearers.

The local committee could not have possibly secured a more able or better fitted orator to close the eventful campaign of 1900 in our city.

Every Republican in the city should be at the meeting and help make it a rouser. No one who hears the speech will doubt his duty at the polls tomorrow.

Winship tonight. Wigwam.

courteous, studious and hardworking Ralph S. Ambler, Republican nominee for common pleas judge, will have a majority running up into thousands. During his residence in Canton he has been secretary of the country Republican central committee, a member of the board of trade, a leader among those active in business at the Stark county bar. He is naturally endowed with judicial qualities, and this is coupled with extraordinary ability. He was born at Salem, O., July 24, 1850, where he attended the public schools. He taught school in Columbiana county. He attended Western Reserve University at Hudson, O., later removed to Cleveland and changed to Adelbert college, from which he was graduated in 1883. He read law with his father, Judge Jacob A. Ambler, and came to Canton in April, 1886, associating himself with Judge Henry A. Wise, under the firm name of Wise & Ambler. In 1890, he and Colonel J. J. Clark formed the firm of Clark & Ambler, which continued until Mr. George Clark became a member thereof, the firm now being Clark, Ambler & Clark. Mr. Ambler is 40 years of age, and, upon his election, will succeed to a position held by his father in 1859, when 30 years of age.-Canton Repository.

From our personal acquaintance with Ralph S. Ambler we can not only commend the above, but can speak of him in the warmest terms of praise as a gentleman, a citizen and a jurist and deserving of the vote of every good citizen.

Yes, put it in your think pipe and smoke it well. Before Uncle Sam, represented by George Dewey, landed in the city of Manila, the Filipino was in a bondage worse than slavery; taxed to death, respected about as much as is a monkey by the Spanish officials, soldiery and citizens, and murdered by scores by the mere expres-sion of the will of a Spanish commander or governor general, while the wives and daughters of the Filipinos were subject to the caprice and passion of any official who chose to claim them. Today, in and around Manila, the Filipino who behaves himself as a law abiding citizen is accorded full protection from every standpoint of the law, obtains better wages and better prices for work and commodities than he ever did in the past or ever dreamed of obtaining on this earth, while the honor and person of his wife and daughters are as sacred and as safely protected as they are in the city of East Liverpool, despite the assertions of all Bryanite liars to the contrary, as the soldier who wears the uniform of Uncle Sam in the Philippines today, and who dares to assault or violate any woman, white, black, red or copper colored, will receive hotter punishment than would be given by any civilized, legalized civilian court in all this land. Bishops J. M. Thoburn and F. W. Warne, of the Methodist Episcopal church, have established missions in Manila, taught by brave and courageous missionaries, and a full blooded Filipino, Nicholas Zamora, has been ordained a deacon in the Methodist Episcopal church, and under God's blessing, is destined to do wonderful work for good in the redemption of human souls. When you hear a Bryanite asserting that our officers and soldiers in the Philippines are a mass of drunkards and debauchees, simply tell him that he is a base and cowardly falsifier and slanderer, and ask the yellow coward to remember that he is maliciously lying about as gallant fellows as ever carried sword or musket, and who are facing death under the folds of Dear Old Glory. Ask him how he dares to thus talk about such men as Lawton and Smetzenberg and Funston and Merritt and Joe Wheeler, and a host of boys who are embraced in the rank and file; and, after the coward and sneak has slinked away before the fervor of your just and righteous wrath, go to the polls on tomorrow morning, Nove 6, 1900, and cast your ballot for McKinley, Roosevelt and the entire I lican ticket; first, because you can do so from the standpoint of pri and right, and secondly because you will not be caught training with a which hated our soldier boys in the sixties, and who carry that hatred in to the present hour.

Ballots.

THE SCHEME WON'T WORK

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—General Charles Dick, chairman of the Republican state committee, issued tonight a signed statement of warning to the Republican voters of the state. The issuance of this warning followed on the discovery today of a very neat scheme to induce Republicans unwittingly to throw away their votes for the national ticket by misrepresenting to them the effect of giving a vote to one Democratic elector.

It is known that attempts to work this scheme are being made already in several counties, though the original discovery was made in Hardin county, the home of W. W. Durbin, member of the Democratic state executive committee. It is even suspected that it may be the intentions of the schemers to work the plan in other states where the Australian ballot obtains.

Dick's Statement.

General Dick's statement follows: "To the Republicans of Ohio.

"We have absolute and indisputable proof of a most cunning and dangerous scheme devised by the Democratic state committee to steal the electoral vote of Ohio for Bryan, and in order that none may be misled and deceived we warn every Republican committeeman, as well as every Republican voter in the state, to be forewarned and prevent the consummation of this nefarious plot. The plan is this: Democratic workers approach Republican friends and state that they do not expect to carry the state for Bryan, but that such a person (naming the Democratic candidate for presidential elector agreed upon at headquarters), is a personal friend and they desire to see him run ahead of the balance of the Democratic ticket, and ask their Republican friends to vote for him by placing a cross mark before his name. The Democratic worker then says: 'You can vote the entire Republican ticket by placing a cross mark in the circle under the eagle and vote for my friend by simply putting a cross mark before the name on the Democratic

How to Mark Ballots.

He had been a taxgatherer for the Roman power; was no doubt a keen and intelligent Jew, clever in the keeping of accounts and a ready writer; and Jesus, the Son of God, had work for him to do. He left all and gladly followed Jesus. The pastor said "he foflowed him gladly." We believe that he did. The facts in the case prove this, as he afterwards made a feast in honor of the Savior and called in all his friends and neighbors, to rejoice with him over the fact of his conversion. He was not ashamed to follow such a leader. His conversion had been not only that he as an individual full and clean and clear. He left all, | might enjoy God's blessings, but he without the shadow of hesitation or regret, and gladly followed the Master. There was no long faced or solemn or despondent look about Matthew-he gladly and rejoicingly followed Jesus; and he has been following him ever since. It was no mere fixed purpose, strong and true and decisive; firmer than the adamantine rock or the everlasting hills. And Levi's decision should be ours. SECOND PRESBYTERIAN

Two Very Interesting Sermons Were Delivered by Rev. N. M. Crowe.

Two excellent sermons by the pastor, Rev. N. M. Crowe, were the features at yesterday's services in the Second Presbyterian church.

In the morning the pastor took for his text, "Wilt thou not revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in Thee?" The speaker reviewed at some length the life and character of David as a man of God, and how his pious heart yearned after greater achievements as a servant of God, and of his great and burning desire sought it on behalf of the people of Israel, whom he loved.

So Christians of today should not be content with present attainments, but reach higher and higher after better things; asking and expecting to receive a rich spiritual blessing.

Revival means living again, and presupposes life in the beginning. The conditions of life may be present, such as light, sunshine, rain and good ground, but it will require the seed in which is life before there will appear animation; but let there be but the seed of life in Christ, planted in the good ground of our hearts, with the other favorable conditions of the kingdom of Christ and our hearts will glow and shall grow.

Mr. Crowe's evening sermon, for beauty of diction and eloquence of expression was remarkable. His text was from Nehemiah 4:6, in which the prophet gave a history of how the wall of Jerusalam came to be rebuilt: "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work."

Nehemiah was a man for the times, clearly a servant of God, chosen of and by Him to a particular work. No doubt We have been asked by some one there were many other Jews of Nehemiah's time who had similar talents. but Nehemiah, besides his rare tallieved God wanted done. Nehemiah desired to serve God, but he did not rush off at the matter without first performing an important duty, namely, seeking God's guidance in prayer. He was watchful. He had no time to This is a total of 13,923,378 votes letters of his enemies. He was a man ble and prepared for it, but God was looking on all the time and blessed the efforts. Discouragements and opposition are a sure token of good to the church and to the Christians. A man in the line of Christian duty may expect and will encounter opposition, but the one who is uncompromizing in his Christianity will win. Satan asks Christian people to serve him. One professed follower of Christ who goes over to Satan is of more account profession. It even happened in Neit happens once in a while that an The Rovers surprised even their occasional prophet nowadays will go we can rejoice that the walls of our most needed now is found in the latter part of the text: "For the people had a mind to work."

conveyed to me was my duty to the Master-"follow me." This language was addressed to Levi, afterwards known as "Matthew," by the Savior; and Levi followed him gladly. He had been a taxgatherer for the Roman power; was no doubt a keen and intelligent Jew, clever in the keeping of accounts and a ready writer; and Jesus, the Son of God, had work for him to do. He left all and gladly followed Jesus. The pastor said "he foflowed him gladly." We believe that he did. The facts in the case prove this, as he afterwards made a feast in honor of the Savior and called in all his friends and neighbors, to rejoice with him over the fact of his conversion. He was not ashamed to follow such a leader. His conversion had been full and clean and clear. He left all, without the shadow of hesitation or regret, and gladly followed the Master. There was no long faced or solemn or despondent look about Matthew-he gladly and rejoicingly followed Jesus; and he has been following him ever since. It was no mere impulse that animated Levi; it was a fixed purpose, strong and true and decisive; firmer than the adamantine rock or the everlasting hills. And Levi's decision should be ours. ## SECOND PRESBYTERIAN

Two Very Interesting Sermons Were Delivered by Rev. N. M. Crowe.

Two excellent sermons by the pastor, Rev. N. M. Crowe, were the features at yesterday's services in the Second Presbyterian church.

In the morning the pastor took for his text, "Wilt thou not revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in Thee?" The speaker reviewed at some length the life and character of David as a man of God, and how his pious heart yearned after greater achievements as a servant of God, and of his great and burning desire not only that he as an individual might enjoy God's blessings, but he sought it on behalf of the people of Israel, whom he loved.

So Christians of today should not be content with present attainments, but reach higher and higher after better things; asking and expecting to receive a rich spiritual blessing.

Revival means living again, and presupposes life in the beginning. The conditions of life may be present, such as light, sunshine, rain and good ground, but it will require the seed in which is life before there will appear animation; but let there be but the seed of life in Christ, planted in the good ground of our hearts, with the other favorable conditions of the kingdom of Christ and our hearts will glow and shall grow.

Mr. Crowe's evening sermon, for beauty of diction and eloquence of expression was remarkable. His text was from Nehemiah 4:6, in which the prophet gave a history of how the wall of Jerusalam came to be rebuilt: "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work."

Nehemiah was a man for the times, clearly a servant of God, chosen of and by Him to a particular work. No doubt there were many other Jews of Nehemiah's time who had similar talents, but Nehemiah, besides his rare talents had a zeal of God and a godly determination to do that which he believed God wanted done. Nehemiah desired to serve God, but he did not rush off at the matter without first performing an important duty, namely, seeking God's guidance in prayer. He was watchful. He had no time to leave the building to ever reply to the This is a total of 13,923,378 votes letters of his enemies. He was a man cast, and shows 286,180 majority over of great courage. He expected trouble and prepared for it, but God was looking on all the time and blessed the efforts. Discouragements and opposition are a sure token of good to the church and to the Christians. A man ir the line of Christian duty may expect and will encounter opposition, but the one who is uncompromizing in his Christianity will win. Satan asks Christian people to serve him. One professed follower of Christ who goes over to Satan is of more account to him than a thousand who make no profession. It even happened in Neprophets went over to the enemy, and it happens once in a while that an occasional prophet nowadays will go we can rejoice that the walls of our Zion are being built and the thing most needed now is found in the latter part of the text: "For the people had a mind to work."

VISITORS TOUCHDOWN A FLUKE

Ball In Lisbon's Territory All the Time and the Tigers Played Best Game.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE EAST END

Although the Royal Tigers did not win the foot ball game from the Lisbon club yesterday it was only through a fluke that the visitors made their one touchdown and the game resulted 5 to 5.

It was the Tigers first game, but they demonstrated to their friends that hard and constant practice had made them the foremost eleven in the city.

They easily outplayed the visitors, as the ball was in Lisbon's territory almost the entire game, and when Lisbon did get the pigskin in their possession they were unable to make any gains through the stone wall line of the Tigers.

Lisbon kicked off and the ball was the Tigers. They failed to make any gain and Wheatley punted to Lisbon's full back, who made a run of 55 yards for a touchdown. He failed to kick goal, but it looked as though it would e an easy thing for Lisbon.

The touchdown only spurred the Tiers on to greater efforts and the line, where it was lost on a forward ture reside.

Lisbon punted out and the first half ended with the ball in the Tigers' possession on Lisbon's five-yard line.

Ball In Lisbon's Territory All the Time and the Tigers Played Best Game.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE EAST END

Although the Royal Tigers did not win the foot ball game from the Lisbon club yesterday it was only through a fluke that the visitors made their one touchdown and the game resulted 5 to 5.

It was the Tigers first game, but they demonstrated to their friends that hard and constant practice had made them the foremost eleven in the city.

They easily outplayed the visitors, as the ball was in Lisbon's territory almost the entire game, and when Lisbon did get the pigskin in their possession they were unable to make any gains through the stone wall line

Lisbon kicked off and the ball was the Tigers. They failed to make any gain and Wheatley punted to Lisbon's full back, who made a run of 55 yards for a touchdown. He failed to kick goal, but it looked as though it would be an easy thing for Lisbon.

The touchdown only spurred the Tiball was carried to Lisbon's five-yard ine, where it was lost on a forward oass.

Lisbon punted out and the first half ended with the ball in the Tigers' possession on Lisbon's five-yard line.

In the second half the Tigers went at it with a vim and after shoving Lisbon back for several yards Hendricks broke away from the bunch and before he was downed had placed the ball on Lisbon's one-yard line. Wheatley was shoved for an easy touchdown. One ball was punted for try at goal, but Fisher failed to make fair catch and the score stood 5

YOUR DUTY.

Workingmen, mechanics, business and professional men, voters in every avenue of life, an important matter will stare you in the face tomorrow, November 6, 1900. Your franchise is not a matter to be treated lightly. Much of vital import is contained in the little paper we call a ballot. Will you throw partisan prejudice aside for the time being, let your good gray matter have a full and untrammeled chance, think calmly of the real situation, embrace Home, Mother, Wife and Children in your thought, and then do your duty? From four to eight years ago you had paralyzed industries in this nation, and East Liverpool bore her full share of the sorrow and disaster. Previous to that time, prosperity had been dwelling with you under Republican rule. Then came Democracy, with flattering and lying promises and succeeded in deceiving the people and obtaining their votes. The nation had a change. And whata change it was, my fellow citizens? An object lesson which should last us for many, many years, and bar out control by the Democratic party for at least a century, or until their entire policy has assumed a radical change. During that administration there were idle workmen all over the land. The gaunt wolf of hunger showed its hideous front and fangs, soup houses became a necessity in order to save the people from starvation, and our own citizens were compelled to accept charity, many people being fed and cared for privately, whose cases never came before the eye of the public. About four years ago came the call from the masses for relief from the curse which had settled down upon this country through the blunders and incompetency of the Democratic leaders, their fallacy of free trade helping foreign nations and foreign workmen, and cursing our own nation and starving our own workmen. You well know that William McKinley and the Republican party pledged the workers for that party are fully themselves to the people that, in case advised of its importance. It is a cunthey were given full control of the ning scheme, and if effectively and government, they would use every effort to lift the curse and incubus which was destroying the nation, paralyzing industries, closing mills, mines, glass houses, potteries and furnaces; and you well know how, under God's blessing, every promise made by William McKinley has been kept to the letter, and this country is today more prosperous and blessed than at any former time in her history. We truly believe that we have four years more of unexampled prosperity before us if we but act aright and trust that grand soldier, statesman and good citizen, William McKinley, with the reins of government. He has been maligned and traduced and slandered and vilof men who foully traduced George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses S. Grant, and he has stood before the American people in the simple grandeur and dignity of a true and tried and brainy and courageous Amerorder to give McKinley and Roosevelt ican citizen, and, by the blessing of God, won out victories in war and in peace. "The trick of the Democrats lies in the misrepresentation as to the marking of the ballot. The difference between the advice of the Democratic solicitor for votes and the statutory provisions regarding the marking of ballot under such circumstances is that a voter who makes a cross mark opposite a Democratic candidate for elector, after having placed a cross in the circle under the eagle, and neglects to erase the name of some Republican candidate for such office, has failed to comply with the law regarding the marking of the ballot, and the judges of election would count the same on presidential electors only for the Democratic candidate opposite whose name the cross mark appears. Democratic Trick.

It will be seen at once, by comparing the Democratic suggestion as to the marking of the ballot and the law that the object is to trick Republicans into throwing away their votes on the entire electoral ticket, and at the same time to give the Democratic candidate a substantial lift both by direct vote and the nullification of the intention of the Republicans to vote for the other 22 candidates for elector on their ticket.

YOUR DUTY.

Workingmen, mechanics, business and professional men, voters in every avenue of life, an important matter will stare you in the face tomorrow. November 6, 1900. Your franchise is not a matter to be treated lightly. Much of vital import is contained in the little paper we call a ballot. Will you throw partisan prejudice aside for the time being, let your good gray matter have a full and untrammeled chance, think calmly of the real situation, embrace Home, Mother, Wife and Children in your thought, and then do your duty? From four to eight years ago you had paralyzed industries in this nation, and East Liverpool bore her full share of the sorrow and disaster. Previous to that time, prosperity had been dwelling with you under Republican rule. Then came Democracy, with flattering and lying promises and succeeded in deceiving the people and obtaining their votes. The nation had a change. And whata change it was, my fellow citizens? An object lesson which should last us for many, many years, and bar out control by the Democratic party for at least a century, or until their entire policy has assumed a radical change. During that administration there were idle workmen all over the land. The gaunt wolf of hunger showed its hideous front and fangs, soup houses became a necessity in order to save the people from starvation, and our own citizens were compelled to accept charity, many people being fed and cared for privately, whose cases never came before the eye of the public. About four years ago came the call from the masses for relief from the curse which had settled down upon this country through the blunders and incompetency of the Democratic leaders, their fallacy of free trade helping foreign nations and foreign workmen, and cursing our own nation and starving our own workmen. You well know that William McKinley and the Republican party pledged the workers for that party are fully themselves to the people that, in case advised of its importance. It is a cunthey were given full control of the government, they would use every effort to lift the curse and incubus which was destroying the nation, paralyzing industries, closing mills, mines, glass houses, potteries and furnaces; and you well know how, under God's blessing, every promise made by William McKinley has been kept to the letter, and this country is today more prosperous and blessed than at any former time in her history. We truly believe that we have four years more of unexampled prosperity before us if nauce I promise him it will not be we but act aright and trust that maintained in this country longer than grand soldier, statesman and good citizen, William McKinley, with the reins of government. ## PUT THE X UNDER THE EAGLE

You Will Make No Mistake If You Do as You Will Vote For Prosperity.

TO VOTE A STRAIGHT TICKET

The Ohio State Journal remarks that many men have lost their votes owing to ignorance in marking their ballots, and gives the following infor-

At the top of each ticket is its party name and a symbol, the eagle for Republicans, the rooster for the Demograts, and so on. Under the symbol is a prominent black circle. If you wish to vote a straight ticket, make, an X in the circle and let it go at that. If you wish to split your ticket, don't put an X in the circle at all. At the left of each name, on every ticket, is a square. Go down the tickets and put an X in the square before the name of every man for whom you wish to vote, being sure not to get more than one X in any space to the left of any

If you wish to vote for president by marking the X in the squares, you must mark before each of the 21 electors. There are no squares before the names of the candidates for president. The squares are before the electors.

After marking the electors, mark the state tickets, the district tickets, and all the candidates you wish to vote for on your county ticket.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC SCHEME DISCOVERED.

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.

Another scheme of the Democracy to vitiate and nullify Republican votes is reported from the counties. It is to request Republicans to vote for some Democrat, offering a blue pencil to mark the ballot. The pencil is not to help Democratic friends, but to throw out altogether entire Republican bal lot, as under the law marks with colored pencil invalidates the ballot.

Section 21 says: "All marks upon the ballot must be made by black lead pencil."

The danger of this scheme, like that for mismarking the ballot for presidential electors, is that it will completely cancel entire ballot and count as a loss to every Republican candi-

That of a Man, With Leg and Arm Missing, Taken From Tarrant Building Ruins.

New York, Nov. 5.-Another body was taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building. The body proved to be that of a man. The right leg and the left arm was missing, the features unrecognizable, and there were no marks on the clothing which would identify the wearer.

Building department employes pulled down a portion of the wedge-shaped building at 273 Washington street. They attempted to bring down the entire building, but pulled off only the upper floor, the third. The same gangs are working as have been emis entirely clear, though no thoroughfare is allowed yet.

TELLS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

He Makes a Plain Statement of Facts That Should Convince AII.

The plain facts in the case are that the man who does not look after his own interests in this life, both in the matter of politics and religion, winds up in the poor house or hades, or both.

Further, self preservation is the first law of nature, and while it is fine talk for a man to get up in public and rant around and pound the air about the Filipino and other foreigners, while overlooking himself and his family and his relations. All this we say is a fine sentiment, finer indeed than exists in fact in any man's heart who is mentally sound. This may seem a strong statement, but we stand over it, for we think more of our surrounding relations than we do of the people of Wellsville or Smith's Ferry, and to our mind we think we are doing right to look first after the welfare of our own family, then give our efforts to the interest of others nearest to us, and if our influence for good is greater than will fill local requirements, let it expand, if it will around the world.

However, it makes me tired to hear some of the Democrats for a dime philanthropists blow their horns while their families actually are in want, at least for such comforts that could be obtained by well directed efforts and not by his wind work.

Now we have the audacity to say to any man, that we believe he is not his immediate family before going to band and three children. the aid of any human being on earth, and that if he will set down tonight in the quiet of his home his conscience will direct him that his first duty is to work in the interest of his wifehis children, and in doing that which of necessity is to the best interest of humanity, for he must come to the conclusion that a vote for the doctrines of the 16 to 1 party is against of the whole people of our country, Roosevelt is in his own and his family's interest and for continued prosperity.

Dynamite Caused Explosion at Berrysburg, W. Va.

TWO OTHERS INJURED MAY DIE.

Some of the Bodies Were Torn to Pieces. If the Explosion Had Occurred In the Day Time, More Persons Might Have Been Killed.

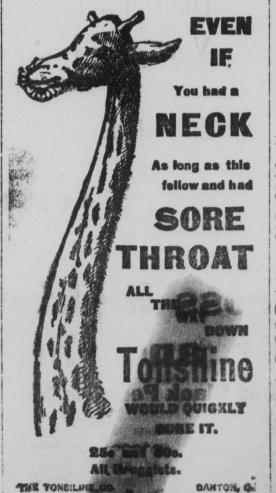

Philippi, W. Va., Nov. 5 .- The work of clearing the mine at Berrysburg progressed so well that operations will be resumed today. It has been ascertained now that there were only 14 men in the mine and that the explosion was caused by dynamite and not by gas. The 14 men on the repair gang were all white and they were working.

The dead are: Ollie Marks, mine boss. Lewis Pack. Andrew Blackwell. Richard Johnston. Albert Brown. Peck Adams. Joseph Jackson. Lawrence Duncan. Ivan Petroch. -Poznauski. Walter Walenski.

Ollie Franks. William Marks, brother of Ollie, will not recover. James Jackson is not expected to survive. The miners are all negroes, and if the explosion had occurred during the day there would have been many lives lost. Three mules and six cars were blown out of the entry tunnel with the 14 men. Some of the bodies were torn to pieces.

To Take Up Moody's Work.

London, Nov. 5 .- Mr. William Moody, son of the late Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist, had been welcomed in England by Lord Kinnaird and other leaders of Christian work. He has secured the services of the Rev. S. C. Campbell Morgan and Mr. F. B. Mayer to take up the work of the great American evangelist. Both are well-known congregationalists with a large English following. The Rev. Mr. Morgan will go to the United States for at least six months, starting in May. Mr. Meyer follows him. Both will start revival services at Northfield and then in other parts of America.

TELLS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

He Makes a Plain Statement of Facts That Should Convince AII.

The plain facts in the case are that the man who does not look after his own interests in this life, both in the matter of politics and religion, winds up in the poor house or hades, or both.

Further, self preservation is the first law of nature, and while it is fine talk for a man to get up in public and rant around and pound the air about the Filipino and other foreigners, while overlooking himself and his family and his relations. All this we say is a fine sentiment, finer indeed than exists in fact in any man's heart. who is mentally sound. This may seem a strong statement, but we stand over it, for we think more of our surrounding relations than we do of the people of Wellsville or Smith's Ferry, and to our mind we think we are doing right to look first after the welfare of our own family, then give our efforts to the interest of others good is greater than will fill local requirements, let it expand, if it will around the world.

some of the Democrats for a dime philanthropists blow their horns while their families actually are in want, at least for such comforts that could be obtained by well directed efforts and not by his wind work.

Now we have the audacity to say to any man, that we believe he is not a good citizen who will not look after his immediate family before going to band and three children. the aid of any human being on earth, and that if he will set down tonight in the quiet of his home his conscience will direct him that his first duty is lane, but were unsuccessful. to work in the interest of his wifehis children, and in doing that which of necessity is to the best interest of humanity, for he must come to the conclusion that a vote for the doctrines of the 16 to 1 party is against of the whole people of our country, and that a vote for McKinley and Roosevelt is in his own and his family's interest and for continued prosperity.

LAST MEETING OF THE CAMPAIGN

Republicans Should Be Sure to Go to the Wigwam Tonight and Hear

COLONEL JOHN O. WINSHIP

He Is an Eloquent Orator and Will Discuss Issues of the Campaign.

IN A CONVINCING MANNER

This evening at the wigwam the last Republican demonstration of the campaign will be held and it is expected the wigwam will not hold the crowd.

The speaker of the evening is Col. J. O. Winship, of Cleveland, and he needs but little introduction to an East Liverpool audience, having delivered an address here a few years ago.

He is an orator of rare ability and possesses a personal magnetism that at once wins the hearts of his hearers.

The local committee could not have possibly secured a more able or better fitted orator to close the eventful campaign of 1900 in our city.

Every Republican in the city should be at the meeting and help make it a rouser. No one who hears the speech will doubt his duty at the polls tomorrow.

Winship tonight. Wigwam.

RALPH S. AMBLER

Courteous, studious and hardworking Ralph S. Ambler, Republican nominee for common pleas judge, will have a majority running up into thousands. During his residence in Canton he has been secretary of the country Republican central committee, a member of the board of trade, a leader among those active in business at the Stark county bar. He is naturally endowed with judicial qualities, and this is coupled with extraordinary ability. He was born at Salem, O., July 24, 1850, where he attended the public schools. He taught school in Columbiana county. He attended Western Reserve University at Hudson, O., later removed to Cleveland and changed to Adelbert college, from which he was graduated in 1883. He read law with his father, Judge Jacob A. Ambler, and came to Canton in April, 1886, associating himself with Judge Henry A. Wise, under the firm name of Wise & Ambler. In 1890, he and Colonel J. J. Clark formed the firm of Clark & Ambler, which continued until Mr. George Clark became a member thereof, the firm now being Clark, Ambler & Clark. Mr. Ambler is 40 years of age, and, upon his election, will succeed to a position held by his father in 1859, when 30 years of age.-Canton Repository.

From our personal acquaintance with Ralph S. Ambler we can not only commend the above, but can speak of him in the warmest terms of praise as a gentleman, a citizen and a jurist and deserving of the vote of every good citizen.

Put the X only in the circle under the eagle.

Yes, put it in your think pipe and smoke it well. Before Uncle Sam, represented by George Dewey, landed in the city of Manila, the Filipino was in a bondage worse than slavery; taxed to death, respected about as much as is a monkey by the Spanish officials, soldiery and citizens, and murdered by scores by the mere expres-sion of the will of a Spanish commander or governor general, while the wives and daughters of the Filipinos were subject to the caprice and passion of any official who chose to claim them. Today, in and around Manila, the Filipino who behaves himself as a law abiding citizen is accorded full protection from every standpoint of the law, obtains better wages and better prices for work and commodities than he ever did in the past or ever dreamed of obtaining on this earth, while the honor and person of his wife and daughters are as sacred and as safely protected as they are in the city of East Liverpool, despite the assertions of all Bryanite liars to the contrary, as the soldier who wears the uniform of Uncle Sam in the Philippines today, and who dares to assault or violate any woman, white, black, red or copper colored, will receive hotter punishment than would be given by any civilized, legalized civilian court in all this land. Bishops J. M. Thoburn and F. W. Warne, of the Methodist Episcopal church, have established missions in Manila, taught by brave and courageous missionaries, and a full blooded Filipino, Nicholas Zamora, has been ordained a deacon in the Methodist Episcopal church, and under God's blessing, is destined to do wonderful work for good in the redemption of human souls. When you hear a Bryanite asserting that our officers and soldiers in the Philippines are a mass of drunkards and debauchees, simply tell him that he is a base and cowardly falsifler and slanderer, and ask the yellow coward to remember that he is maliciously lying about as gallant fellows as ever carried sword or musket, and who are facing death under the folds of Dear Old Glory. ## A TRICK TO DEFRAUD

Democrats Are Making Strong
Efforts to Secure One Electoral Vote In Ohio.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY

General Dicks Warns the Voters and Tells Them Row to Mark Their Ballots.

THE SCHEME WON'T WORK

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—General Charles Dick, chairman of the Republican state committee, issued tonight a signed statement of warning to the Republican voters of the state. The issuance of this warning followed on the discovery today of a very neat scheme to induce Republicans unwittingly to throw away their votes for the national ticket by misrepresenting to them the effect of giving a vote to one Democratic elector.

It is known that attempts to work this scheme are being made already in several counties, though the original discovery was made in Hardin county, the home of W. W. Durbin, member of the Democratic state executive committee. It is even suspected that it may be the intentions of the schemers to work the plan in other states where the Australian ballot obtains.

Dick's Statement.

General Dick's statement follows: "To the Republicans of Ohio.

"We have absolute and indisputable proof of a most cunning and dangerous scheme devised by the Democratic state committee to steal the electoral vote of Ohio for Bryan, and in order that none may be misled and deceived we warn every Republican committeeman, as well as every Republican voter in the state, to be forewarned and prevent the consummation of this nefarious plot. The plan is this: Democratic workers approach Republican friends and state that they do not expect to carry the state for Bryan, but that such a person (naming the Democratic candidate for presidential elector agreed upon at headquarters), is a personal friend and they desire to see him run ahead of the balance of the Democratic ticket, and ask their Republican friends to vote for him by placing a cross mark before his name. The Democratic worker then says: 'You can vote the entire Republican ticket by placing a cross mark in the circle under the eagle and vote for my friend by simply putting a cross mark before the name on the Democratic ticket.'

How to Mark Ballots.

"A person marking his ballot in such manner will lose his vote for the entire Republican electoral ticket, having, under the statute, voted for but one candidate for such office-the Democrat opposite whose name he has placed the cross mark. The statute (section 21, paragraph 2, clause B, ballot laws of Ohio) provides that where there are two or more candidates to be voted for for a particular office, as in the case of presidential electors, and you do not desire to vote for every candidate of either party for such office place a cross mark in the circle at the head of the ticket

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY

A Practical Sermon, Delivered in a Plain, Practical and Comprehensive Manner.

Editor News Review-I believe that you will grant me a small space in be ur paper for the purpose of speakof a sermon I heard delivered on All day morning at the First M. E. was ch of East Liverpool, by the pas-Carr lev. Clark Crawford. It impress- try pleade very much. The main thought THE SURPRIS conveyed to me was my duty to the Master-"follow me." This language was addressed to Levi, afterwards known as "Matthew," by the Savior; and Levi followed him gladly. He had been a taxgatherer for the Roman power; was no doubt a keen and intelligent Jew, clever in the keeping of accounts and a ready writer; and Jesus, the Son of God, had work for him to do. He left all and gladly followed Jesus. The pastor said "he followed him gladly." We believe that he did. The facts in the case prove this. as he afterwards made a feast in honor of the Savior and called in all his friends and neighbors, to rejoice with him over the fact of his conversion. He was not ashamed to follow such a leader. His conversion had been full and clean and clear. He left all. without the shadow of hesitation or regret, and gladly followed the Master. There was no long faced or solemn or despondent look about Matthew-he gladly and rejoicingly followed Jesus; and he has been following him ever since. It was no mere impulse that animated Levi; it was a fixed purpose, strong and true and decisive; firmer than the adamantine rock or the everlasting hills. And Levi's decision should be ours. The Christian life demands brave and true and courageous followers; men and women of fixed principles of right, Dick Burrows was drunk on Second founded on the eternal work of right-

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN

Two Very Interesting Sermons Were Delivered by Rev. N. M. Crowe.

Two excellent sermons by the pastor, Rev. N. M. Crowe, were the features at yesterday's services in the Second Presbyterian church.

In the morning the pastor took for his text, "Wilt thou not revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in Thee?" The speaker reviewed at some length the life and character of David as a man of God, and how his pious heart yearned after greater achievements as a servant of God, and of his great and burning desire not only that he as an individual might enjoy God's blessings, but he sought it on behalf of the people of Israel, whom he loved.

So Christians of today should not be content with present attainments, but reach higher and higher after better things; asking and expecting to receive a rich spiritual blessing.

Revival means living again, and presupposes life in the beginning. The conditions of life may be present, such as light, sunshine, rain and good ground, but it will require the seed in which is life before there will appear animation; but let there be but the seed of life in Christ, planted in the good ground of our hearts, with the other favorable conditions of the kingdom of Christ and our hearts will glow and shall grow.

Mr. Crowe's evening sermon, for beauty of diction and eloquence of expression was remarkable. His text was from Nehemiah 4:6, in which the prophet gave a history of how the wall of Jerusalam came to be rebuilt: "So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work."

Nehemiah was a man for the times, clearly a servant of God, chosen of and by Him to a particular work. No doubt We have been asked by some one there were many other Jews of Nehemiah's time who had similar talents. determination to do that which he believed God wanted done. Nehemiah desired to serve God, but he did not rush off at the matter without first performing an important duty, namely, seeking God's guidance in prayer. He was watchful. He had no time to leave the building to ever reply to the letters of his enemies. He was a man of great courage. He expected trouble and prepared for it, but God was looking on all the time and blessed the efforts. Discouragements and opposition are a sure token of good to the church and to the Christians. A man ir the line of Christian duty may expect and will encounter opposition, but the one who is uncompromizing in his Christianity will win. Satan asks Christian people to serve him. One professed follower of Christ who goes over to Satan is of more account to him than a thousand who make no profession. It even happened in Neit happens once in a while that an The Rovers surprised even their occasional prophet nowadays will go we can rejoice that the walls of our Zion are being built and the thing most needed now is found in the latter part of the text: "For the people had a mind to work."

Ball In Lisbon's Territory All the Time and the Tigers Played Best Game.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE EAST END

Although the Royal Tigers did not win the foot ball game from the Lisbon club yesterday it was only through a fluke that the visitors made their one touchdown and the game resulted 5 to 5.

It was the Tigers first game, but they demonstrated to their friends that hard and constant practice had made them the foremost eleven in the city.

They easily outplayed the visitors, as the ball was in Lisbon's territory almost the entire game, and when Lisbon did get the pigskin in their possession they were unable to make any gains through the stone wall line of the Tigers.

Lisbon kicked off and the ball was from out of town. ne Tigers. They failed to make any gain and Wheatley punted to Lisbon's full back, who made a run of 55 yards for a touchdown. He failed to kick goal, but it looked as though it would e an easy thing for Lisbon.

YOUR DUTY.

Workingmen, mechanics, business and professional men, voters in every avenue of life, an important matter will stare you in the face tomorrow, November 6, 1900. Your franchise is not a matter to be treated lightly. Much of vital import is contained in the little paper we call a ballot. Will you throw partisan prejudice aside for the time being, let your good gray matter have a full and untrammeled chance, think calmly of the real situation, embrace Home, Mother, Wife and Children in your thought, and then do your duty? From four to eight years ago you had paralyzed industries in this nation, and East Liverpool bore her full share of the sorrow and disaster. Previous to that time, prosperity had been dwelling with you under Republican rule. Then came Democracy, with flattering and lying promises and succeeded in deceiving the people and obtaining their votes. The nation had a change. And whata change it was, my fellow citizens? An object lesson which should last us for many, many years, and bar out control by the Democratic party for at least a century, or until their entire policy has assumed a radical change. During that administration there were idle workmen all over the land. The gaunt wolf of hunger showed its hideous front and fangs, soup houses became a necessity in order to save the people from starvation, and our own citizens were compelled to accept charity, many people being fed and cared for privately, whose cases never came before the eye of the public. About four years ago came the call from the masses for relief from the curse which had settled down upon this country through the blunders and incompetency of the Democratic leaders, their fallacy of free trade helping foreign nations and on their ticket. foreign workmen, and cursing our own nation and starving our own workmen. You well know that William McKinley and the Republican party pledged the workers for that party are fully themselves to the people that, in case advised of its importance. It is a cunthey were given full control of the ning scheme, and if effectively and government, they would use every ef- systematically worked upon unsusfort to lift the curse and incubus which was destroying the nation, paralyzing industries, closing mills, mines, glass houses, potteries and furnaces; state. and you well know how, under God's blessing, every promise made by William McKinley has been kept to the letter, and this country is today more prosperous and blessed than at any former time in her history. We truly believe that we have four years more of unexampled prosperity before us if we but act aright and trust that grand soldier, statesman and good citizen, William McKinley, with the reins of government. He has been maligned and traduced and slandered and vilof men who foully traduced George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Ulysses S. Grant, and he has stood before the American people in the simple grandeur and dignity of a true and tried and brainy and courageous American citizen, and, by the blessing of God, won out victories in war and in peace. of the party most of whose candidates you desire to vote for, and indicate your choice of other party candidates for such office by placing cross marks before names; then, either place a cross mark to the left of the names of the candidates on your own party ticket for whom you desire to vote for for such office, or erase the names of those for whom you do not desire

"The trick of the Democrats lies in the misrepresentation as to the marking of the ballot. The difference between the advice of the Democratic solicitor for votes and the statutory provisions regarding the marking of a ballot under such circumstances is that a voter who makes a cross mark opposite a Democratic candidate for elector, after having placed a cross in the circle under the eagle, and neglects to erase the name of some Republican candidate for such office, has failed to comply with the law regarding the marking of the ballot, and the judges of election would count the same on presidential electors only for the Democratic candidate opposite whose name the cross mark appears.

Democratic Trick. It will be seen at once, by comparing the Democratic suggestion as to the marking of the ballot and the law that the object is to trick Republicans into throwing away their votes on the entire electoral ticket, and at the same time to give the Democratic candidate a substantial lift both by direct vote and the nullification of the intention of the Republicans to vote for the other 22 candidates for elector

"This scheme the Democratic state committee has promulgated to its organization the entire state over, and pecting Republicans might result in giving the Democrats one elector in Ohio and reduce our majority in the

PUT THE X UNDER THE EAGLE

You Will Make No Mistake If You Do as You Will Vote For Prosperity.

TO VOTE A STRAIGHT TICKET

The Ohio State Journal remarks that many men have lost their votes owing to ignorance in marking their ballots, and gives the following infor-

At the top of each ticket is its party name and a symbol, the eagle for Republicans, the rooster for the Democrats, and so on. Under the symbol is a prominent black circle. If you wish to vote a straight ticket, make, an X in the circle and let it go at that. If you wish to split your ticket, don't put an X in the circle at all. At the left of each name, on every ticket, is a square. Go down the tickets and put an X in the square before the name of every man for whom you wish to vote, being sure not to get more than one X in any space to the left of any

If you wish to vote for president by marking the X in the squares, you must mark before each of the 21 electors. There are no squares before the names of the candidates for president. The squares are before the

After marking the electors, mark the state tickets, the district tickets, and all the candidates you wish to vote for on your county ticket.

Another way to vote is to mark under the eagle and then for a mixed ticket, make an X in the square in front of the name on any other ticket; you may wish to vote for. The best way is to mark under the eagle and let it go at that. You make no mistake when you cast a vote marked that way, and it will be counted as you cast it.

ENTERED SUIT.

William G. McCullough Seeks to Force East Liverpool Lands to Sale.

Lisbon, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—William G. McCullough, as executor of the estate of the late Samuel N. Mc-Cullough, of Wellsville, entered suit this morning against Mrs. Hannah Gibbs.

The action is one brought to recover $800 due on a promissory note and to force to sale a four-acre tract of land in East Liverpool on which he holds a mortgage given to secure the payment of the amount.

The note and mortgage were given to J. W. Reilly in 1882 and were transferred by him to the deceased.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC SCHEME DISCOVERED.

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.

Another scheme of the Democracy to vitiate and nullify Republican votes is reported from the counties. It is to request Republicans to vote for some Democrat, offering a blue pencil to mark the ballot. The pencil is not to help Democratic friends, but to throw out altogether entire Republican ballot, as under the law marks with colored pencil invalidates the ballot.

Section 21 says: "All marks upon the ballot must be made by black lead pencil."

The danger of this scheme, like that for mismarking the ballot for presidential electors, is that it will completely cancel entire ballot and count as a loss to every Republican candi-

ANOTHER BODY FOUND.

That of a Man, With Leg and Arm Missing, Taken From Tarrant Building Ruins.

New York, Nov. 5 .- Another body was taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building. The body proved to be that of a man. The right leg and the left arm was missing, the features unrecognizable, and there were no marks on the clothing which would identify the wearer.

Building department employes pulled down a portion of the wedge-shaped building at 273 Washington street. They attempted to bring down the entire building, but pulled off only the upper floor, the third. The same gangs are working as have been employed heretofore and Warren street is entirely clear, though no thoroughfare is allowed yet.

SWIHART HIS OWN EXECUTOR.

Iowa Man Visits Relatives In Ohio-Distributed Part of His Fortune.

Canal Dover, O., Nov. 5.-Frederick Swihart, an aged and wealthy resident of Newton, Iowa, is now visiting among relatives in this county and distributing their respective shares in his wealth.

Believing that his money would prove a bone of contention among his heirs he conceived the idea of hunting up all his relatives and of giving to them with his own hand their repective shares, that otherwise would aggregates over $100,000, and the shares range from $35 to $3,000, according to the nearness of kin.

Mr. Swihart says he has already found 75 relatives and that there are many others. He requires a receipt from each and these receipts will be held by his attorney after Mr. Swihart's death. He has wisely reserved enough to provide for his needs during the remainder of his life and to avoid disputes he has decided to bequeath whatever remainder there should be to some charitable institution. He is 78 years old.

TOM BAKER KILLED.

Antigo, Wis., Nov. 5 .- Tom Baker, who stabbed John J. Connellton at Bryant, a few miles from here, several days ago, during a political row, was shot and killed by George Connellton. George Connellton, who did the shooting, was accompanied by a deputy sheriff, who was on hand to arrest Baker, who struck a match and reach-Baker, who struck a match and reached for his pistol. Barber is said to have been a noted Kentucky criminal, having killed several men in that state. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hanged, but the governor commuted his sentence to life imprisonment and afterwards pardoned him.

GREATEST TRIAL IN HISTORY.

The Church of Jesus Christ at the Bar of Its Own Utterances--What the Christians of America Have Said of Campaign Issues -- Modern Christianity Brought Face to Face with its Hour of Testing.

The Honor of the Church

Is the issue of 1900--Woolley. The Christian Church is on Trial, and we Shall Know To-morrow by the Ballots of Christians whether the Church means what it Says.

"The stupendous need of the hour to meet this enemy of votes in any manner this year. They just grow. By the way, everything American and Christian is an aroused church con- isn't it strange that "a few unscrupulous Prohibitionists" are secrated to the extermination of the traffic."—The Presbyterian attracting so much attention in a presidential campaign? General Assembly, 1896.

"No political party has a right to expect, nor ought it to receive, the support of Christian men as long as it stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."--Gen. Com. M. E. Church.

"The Assembly declares that the legalizing of the liquor traffic is a sin against God, and a Crime against man, and that any party favoring the licensing thereof has no right to expect, and should not receive, the votes of Christian citizens."-- The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, 1900.

"Where principle is, there is my party." -- Sumner.

Every liquor seller will tomorrow vote for self-interest. Will vote with them? Remember R. W. Tayler's pe arance as counsel in the Grim and Whan outrage, and rebuke him by giving Chas. F. Bough a good home vote for Congress. One thousand Republican and Democratic admirers of East Liverpool's favorite platform orator, John G. Woolley, can vote for him without affecting the result under Republican claim of 100,000 plurality in Ohio for McKinley and a De mocratic forlorn hope.

The News Review charges "a few unscrupulous Prohibitionis ts" with an attempt to deceive dear innocent Republicans into voting our ticket, all of which we deny, with the further agreem ent to pay $10 for proof of any and every Prohibitionist acting in bad faith to obtain votes. Really we don't have to go after

The canteen is infernal, no more, no less.--Dwight L. Moody,

"The establishment of the 'army canteen' or 'military beer saloon,' IS A BACKWARD STEP IN CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION. It will be a source of great trouble to us if not abolished."--Bishop C. C. McCabe, 1898.

"There are sins of omission and sins of commission. There are blunders that are worse than crimes. We venture the assertion that the most damaging sin of omission that President McKinley ever committed, has been his persistent and dogged refusal against the united appeal of the Christian sentiment of the nation, Protestant and Catholic, to wipe out the satanic canteen system. One stroke of his pen would have done it" .-- The Christian Uplook.

"The parallel between the years 1896 to 1900 and the years 1856 to 1860 is certainly very suggestive. The time has come for an Abraham Lincoln to raise the battle-cry "No Saloons under the Flag!" Let the States protect the immoral traffic if they will, Old Glory should not float over a saloon. Let the traffic become sectional, and let the federal government be clear of this accursed business. The Supreme Court has said: "There is no inherent right in a citizen to thus sell intoxicating drinks by retail; it is not a privilege of a citizen of a state or of a citizen of the United States' (Crowley vs. Christensen, 137 U-S., '86).-Rock River M. E. Conference, 1900.

TELLS WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

He Makes a Plain Statement of Facts That Should Convince

The plain facts in the case are that the man who does not look after his own interests in this life, both in the matter of politics and religion, winds up in the poor house or hades, or

Further, self preservation is the first law of nature, and while it is fine talk for a man to get up in public and rant around and pound the air about the Filipino and other foreigners, while overlooking himself and his family and his relations. All this we say is a fine sentiment, finer indeed than exists in fact in any man's heart who is mentally sound. This may seem a strong statement, but we stand over it, for we think more of our surrounding relations than we do of the people of Wellsville or Smith's Ferry, and to our mind we think we are doing right to look first after the welfare of our own family, then give our efforts to the interest of others nearest to us, and if our influence for good is greater than will fill local requirements, let it expand, if it will around the world.

However, it makes me tired to hear some of the Democrats for a dime philanthropists blow their horns while their families actually are in want, at least for such comforts that could be obtained by well directed efforts and not by his wind work.

Now we have the audacity to say to any man, that we believe he is not a good citizen who will not look after his immediate family before going to the aid of any human being on earth, and that if he will set down tonight in the quiet of his home his conscience will direct him that his first duty is to work in the interest of his wifeof necessity is to the best interest of conclusion that a vote for the doctrines of the 16 to 1 party is against of the whole people of our country, Roosevelt is in his own and his family's interest and for continued pros-
